NORWICH BULLETIN
Willimantic Office
31 Church Street Telephone 1042

What is Going On Tonight.
Oswestry Lodge, No. 15, I. O. O. F., meets at 8:30 Main street.
Trinity Chapter, No. 1, R. A. M., stated convocation at Masonic hall.

Eastern Connecticut prohibition enforcement officers visited the home of Samuel Segel in Columbia, Wednesday morning and seized a six-gallon still that was located in a haymow in the barn. The remainder of the still was found in different places about the property. The still was located in the ceiling of a third attic and the cooper, a large job, was found in another part of the house. One hundred and fifty gallons of malt and the above used in the business were found in the cellar. Stanley Krawinkel, who is employed by Segel, was taken when the officers arrived, and both men admitted they had been engaged in an illicit distilling business. They were told to appear before United States Commissioner Earl W. Mathewson at Norwich Friday. Two hundred pounds of sugar were later found in the barn, covered with hay.

Indications are that the criminal side of the Windham county superior court will not consume much time in this city, as many of the cases on the docket have already been settled, and other defendants who pleaded not guilty when put to plea have prepared to throw themselves on the mercy of the court. There are a few jury cases left, but State Attorney Charles A. Searis is of the opinion that the docket will be finished long before the allotted time to Feb. 1st.

William, with other cities in the state, felt the effects of the storm that started early Wednesday morning with a heavy fall of snow. Toward noon the weather moderated and rain began to fall, later changing to hail, and again to the evening rain. The high wind that prevailed during the day made conditions very stormy. Street travel was difficult and there was a noticeable decline in the number of shoppers seen on the streets during the day. Many tried running their automobiles, some to their sorrow, as not a few were forced to ask for aid to pull them clear from banks and where they had frozen in. In spite of the dangerous travel there were no accidents reported during the day. The

After running at full time for several months, a number of departments of the American Thread company are now on part time. Some departments of No. 2 and No. 4 mill have received notice that from now until further notice the departments will operate on a three-day schedule. The winding department in No. 2 mill closed Wednesday night for the remainder of the week, and others will probably be closed within a few days.

Funeral services for Mrs. Napoleon O. R. Pare were held Wednesday morning at 8:30 o'clock at her home, No. 14 card Hill. Regular high mass at St. Mary's church at 9 o'clock was sung by Rev. J. Pappilon. As the body was borne into the church it was met by a delegation of the St. Anne society and escorted to the sanctuary hall. The banner bearers were

SEEK FRIENDS IN HOUR OF NEED.
"In the hour of need we quickly seek our best friends," writes Charles Schridt Ward, of the 730 Ave. Oakland, Cal. "Our little boy and girl had severe cold, rasping cough without phlegm, a rough throat and red face, the face of the sufferer like unto a dragon. Foleys' Honey and Tar was a wonderful emergency remedy. It relieved the cough, Foleys' Honey and Tar is a reputation as the best remedy for coughs and colds."—E. O'Connell Co.

Father John's Medicine does all that is claimed.

Happy Parents Pour Out Their Thanks To Tanlac

BLANCHE BLAIR

That Tanlac is a wonderful medicine for delicate children is conclusively proven by the remarkable results accomplished in the case of the three children shown in this picture.

Little Blanche Blair, of Providence, R. I., aged 13, gained 10 pounds; Rebecca McCabe, at right, aged 8, of Scranton, Pa., gained 15 pounds; and the Richard Leary, Jr., of Philadelphia, who was very delicate, is now in fine robust health. The statements made by their parents are as follows:

Mr. A. M. Blair, residing at 20 Atlantic street, Providence, R. I., said: "We are just so happy over the change Tanlac has made in our little girl that we can't do or say enough to show our appreciation. She had lost nearly 20 pounds in weight and looked so frail and weak that her mother and I were both almost worried sick over her condition. Since taking Tanlac, she has already gained 10 pounds in weight and looks like a different girl."

Mrs. Catherine McCabe, 414 Dickerson Ave., Scranton, Pa., said: "The 'little' Tanlac has made in our little girl that I have no idea she would be with me now if it hadn't been for Tanlac. It is a mystery to me how she lived on the little she was eating and what a life she never even cared to play with the dolls and toys she got at Christmas. Since taking Tanlac she is as hardy and well as any child could be and has gained 15 pounds in weight. I will always praise Tanlac for restoring our little girl's health."

Richard Leary, 2342 Fairview St., Philadelphia, said: "There is no doubt in my mind that Tanlac saved my little boy's life. For two years I wouldn't have been a bit surprised to find him drop off at any time. He had stomach trouble and many a time the gas pressed up into his chest and he would faint. I thought sure he couldn't breathe but a few more rasps. But Tanlac gave him back to his strong and well and we will praise Tanlac for our dying day."

NOTE—Tanalac Vegetable Pills are an essential and vitally important part of the Tanlac treatment. You cannot hope to get the most satisfactory results from Tanlac without first establishing a free and regular movement of the bowels. Tanlac Vegetable Pills are absolutely free from calomel and are sold on a positive guarantee to give satisfaction.

Tanalac is sold in Norwich by National Drug Stores Corp. and Tattville Pharmacy and in Plainfield by F. L. Miller; Charles R. Carey, Jewett City, Conn.; Dearnley & Clarke, Watertown, Conn.

POETRY

SNOWFLAKES
Out of the bosom of the air,
Out of the cloud-folds of garments shaken,
Over the woodlands brown and bare,
Over the harvest fields forsaken,
Swift and soft, they fall,
Descends the snow.

Even as our cloudy fables come,
Suddenly shape in some divine express,
Even as the troubled heart, with sighs,
In the white commentaries confession,
The troubled sky reveals
The grief it feels.

This is the poem of the air,
Slowly in silent syllables recorded:
This is the secret of the snow,
Long in its cloudy bosom hoarded,
Now whispered and revealed
To mortal ears—
—Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.

THE GOLD OF NEW YEAR

It's over the way of a New Year Day
To come to me with a gift of gold,
Even while it's singing a wild-sweet song—
Just for the love traveled the road so long!
For the New Year says, as the years
"Hear for youth, time and snow for the old."
But I've one gift that his gifts move
The gold of my old-time sweetheart's love!

I just don't mind when he comes my way
And smiles as he hands me my gift of gold;
It's something expected, that comes with years,
And I'm not for weeping a woman's tears
'Cause the feeling comes that I'm growing old
And the best of the sweet life-story
I smile for joy of my gift so fair—
The gold of my old-time sweetheart's love!

It's a lonely way that I've had to go
Since she's been sleeping under the snow—
Under the roses and stars that seem
To dream of her, as I dream of you;
Same sweet dream on the journey's end,
But I'm shaming the shadow with her love,
And there's still a light makes the dark
—The gold of my old-time sweetheart's love!

O! he'd away from the New Year Day—
More dear and sweet than a word can say
Just where her head she loved to rest
Over this heart, in an old man's breast.
There's no more to be had of that love,
Only stirred by the heart's true love,
And I'll love it to Heaven some day!
—The gold of my old-time sweetheart's love!

—Frank L. Stanton, in Atlanta Constitution.

HUMOR OF THE DAY

Brown—Wann't that bridge disaster terrible?
Black—Who told you that about it?
Black—The paper said so.
Black—Oh, yes, yes, certainly. For the moment I thought you were referring to my wife losing all her pin money when she gave last night—Boston Transcript.

Brown—Have you noticed the fine picture illustrating Commerce on the new $10 Federal Reserve note?
Black—No, I never had a chance to keep it long enough to make a study of the engraving—New York Sun.

"My dear," said Mr. Plunger when he went home one evening. "The something important that you—a receiver—has been appointed to take charge of my affairs."
"How nice," cooed Mrs. Plunger. "You will be hold his first reception!"
His friends say, "What a breezy personality!"
His enemies say, "What an awful blow!"—Wayside Tales.

"I don't believe the negro race is naturally eloquent," remarked the northern visitor.
"Sir," replied the old-fashioned southern gentleman, "you have probably never heard a colored backboard addressing a group of negroes. It is a paltry affair!"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Black—Why do you leave New York? Make the greatest speed the first three miles!
Blunk—The bartenders help stroke—Life.

Book Agent—Sir, I have a little work to do for you.
Busy Merchant—Then suppose you do and do it. I have more than a little—Boston Transcript.

"For twenty years," said the eminent tragedian, "I have played Shakespeare up and down the land."
"Well?" replied his manager.
"And?" asked his friend.
"I like to think so, but I hope you'll never book me in a town where I'll have to compete for patronage with a celebrated 'tully dancer'!"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Wife—"Don't you think, dear, the grass in the lawn ought to be cut?"
Husband—Certainly—let's ignore it.—Boston Transcript.

Dixon—"A woman's never beaver."
Nixon—"No; a man who fleeces and runs away will find his wife quite ready to resume the argument upon his return."—London Answer.

"I seen you with my own eyes," said Three Finger Sam. "You were dealing off the bottom of the deck."
"Well," roared Plunk Pete. "What's you got to say about it?"
"I'm undigested," choked he, "because you to the Chinese (high public) and change the game to bridge and choose you for a partner!"—Washington Star.
